Wedding Bells

PERKINS — WORTHING

On the afternoon of February 20 the Irma United Church manse was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding when Violet Olive, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Worthing of Irma became the bride of Leslie Douglas, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins of Ridgedale, Sask. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. W. Inglis.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a lovely rust suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Worthing.

Having now returned, they are making their home in Wainwright.

Red Cross Notes

Contributions are continuing to roll in to Irma and district campaign offices according to the chairman of the local Red Cross campaign. Quota for this area is set at $450.00 of which $253.00 has been collected. The campaign will continue until the quota is reached.

With a provincial quota of $459,900 and the Red Cross pledged to spend over $600,000 in Alberta in 1953, curtailment of Red Cross services would follow should the provincial campaign fall short. Included in the $600,000 is the nationally-sponsored Blood Transfusion Service, arts and crafts for veterans and film service for veterans.

No phase of Red Cross safely can be allowed to lapse. The Blood Transfusion Service, work for crippled children, swimming and water safety, Junior Red Cross, disaster relief, civilian defence and work for civilian war refugees must continue.

"Because Red Cross services are so necessary to the well-being of our people, we must reach our quota."

"If you have not already given your contribution to Red Cross, then please do so immediately, to ensure that 'the work of mercy never ends.'"

Easterly Echoes

Mr. Gordon Elliott and Mr. Carl Engler motored to Edmonton the first of the week.

Mr. Hugh Elliott has been making preparations to move his wife and family from Edmonton into the house on the G. Fenton farm in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Fenton and family, also Mrs. W. Gray of Wainwright are attending the Edmonton Easter Bazaar.

Word has been received that Mr. J. A. Carier of Winnipeg has been transferred to Edmonton as manager of Tip Top Tailors there. He expects to be there for business on April 13, exactly ten years to the day when he started work in the same store as clerk.

Measles or rubella have been the cause of many of our students missing school during the last few weeks. Another cause was the deep snowfall over the week-end but we hope that most roads will be open now.

Mr. Stuart Fenton was elected president of the Northern Alberta Hereford Association in Edmonton on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moss and family motored from Anchorage, Alaska, to visit at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Geo. Worthing.

Your Government

By Donald F. Smith

EDMONTON—The long-awaited (at least to some people) answers to the question, "What will the government do with the liquor laws?" were presented to the Alberta legislature last week, when Hon. Lucien Maynard, attorney-general, introduced a bill to amend the Liquor Control Act. Although the present act is to be entirely replaced by the new one, there are a few radical changes. No cocktail bars. No mixed drinking in Edmonton and Calgary.

One of the major changes is the authority given to the Liquor Control Board to require hotels to maintain food facilities in beer parlors. It is understood that the Board probably will put this requirement into effect, after the act goes into effect, July 1.

Although opposition members hurled charges at the government, for not releasing the recommendations of the government's special committee on liquor, which met last year, Premier Manning and Mr. Maynard stood their ground, stating that as the committee was a government-established body, there is no obligation to reveal the recommendations.

So it went, with Liberal Leader J. Harper Prowse and his party colleague H. J. MacDonald of Calgary, trying to find out what the recommendations were by coming in the back door. Did the committee recommend cocktail bars? — Did it recommend mixed drinking and liquor with meals? All the questions went unanswered.

Finally after an hour and a half the bill was read the first time, with promises of more hot exchanges when it was presented for second and third reading this week.

The third night sitting of the present legislature saw Premier Manning close the debate on his budget speech, which had raged back and forth across the house for about two weeks. He denied many charges which had been made by opposition members, chiefly the contention that the government is not providing enough financial aid for the municipalities.

He said in four years the government provided municipalities and school districts with $171,000,000 in direct assistance and grants. He pointed out this was only $3,000,000 less than the total budget before the house.

The speaking record for the session was shattered (it probably won't be equalled this year) by Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, (Drumheller), when he gave a three-hour-and-15-minute discourse over four days on the province's highway situation. He covered the situation from Water-ton Lakes to the Peace River, stating that, while construction may be slow in some cases, the highways are being built from bottom to top to conform to modern standards. The minister's address was his way of replying to opposition contentions in previous years that cabinet ministers were not reporting fully the work of their departments.

A resolution to be sent to the federal government in connection with health services was approved by the legislature. It asks that proposals made by the federal government in 1946 be implemented. It would mean federal financing of up to 80 per cent of the cost of health services instituted by the province. The resolution passed by the house was substituted for one proposed by CCF Leader Elmer E. Roper, who asked for aid based on recommendations of the Alberta health survey committee. Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, minister of health, rejected it on grounds that it would mean a compulsory per capita tax. The CCF leader called it "quibbling" and expressed satisfaction with the amendment.

ALSO: The house approved a $65,800 appropriation for European Flood Relief — N. W. Dushenski (CCF-Willemstad) suggested the government's position is liquid because so much of its revenues is from oil and liquor.—C. S. Sayers (SC-Camrose) believes the farmers position is being painted "too rosy" by a lot of people. He told the house the farm population is on the decline and so is farm income, in relation to increasing prices on consumer goods.—St. Patrick's Day, March 17, was observed, as the two women members, Mrs. C. R. Wood, Stony Plain, and Mrs. Rose Wilkinson, Calgary, received green corsages and Industries and Labor Minister J. L. Robinson, greeting cards, a clay pipe and two shillelaghs.

Tractors come under 'farm improvements', and a temporary lack of ready cash is a poor reason to hold up any farm improvement. That goes for most all farm implements that make for increased production and — thereby — increased income.

If you've made up your mind to get a tractor some time, why wait any longer? Come in and talk over a B of M Farm Improvement Loan with us just as soon as you find it convenient. You'll be surprised how little it costs and what easy repayment terms can be arranged.

Viking Items

Hockey fans saw four teams in action here last Wednesday afternoon and evening, when Killam Viking, New Sarepta and the Edmonton Rangers performed before fairly large crowds. The ice was not in the best of condition, but the games were fast and the tournament wound up the local hockey season as far as the seniors are concerned. All teams came pretty well bolstered up with additional players, Viking having a line from Wainwright, Killam having Camrose players, and New Sarepta was mostly young college players.

Killam took the measure of the Viking Lions by the score of 6 to 4 in the first game. The Edmonton Rangers and the New Sarepta team hooked up the second game which was won by the Rangers 3 to 1. The New Sarepta team put up a great game against the strong Ranger aggregation. The Edmonton Rangers went on to win the tournament in the finals against Killam. Dr. R. L. Lynn, dentist, is now located in the former town hall, just west of the Bank of Montreal. The Viking Midgets bowed down to the Daysland Midgets by the score of 5 to 2 last Friday evening.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Sanders, well known to Irma residents, were honored at a party to celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary at Brudner, B.C., on Sunday, Mar. 15. It was also the 20th anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. H. G. Morse of Irma who was present for the occasion.

A large party of friends and relatives, including a contingent from Trail, B.C., where Mrs. Sanders has many relatives, gathered in the home of the Sanders family. The place was bright with a large quantity of flowers. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the old couple and to Mrs. Morse to remind them of the happy event.

Mr. A. J. Deadmarsh, brother of the bride, who was present at their wedding in England fifty years ago proposed the toast to the bride and groom. Mrs. Sanders in replying said that the event to him was in the nature of a centenary as he had lived with his wife for fifty years and his wife had lived with him for fifty years and surely two fifties make a hundred. The event was kept quite quiet in the neighborhood but in spite of this a number of local people dropped in to pay their respects to the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders who are enjoying good health, send their best wishes to their many old friends, who sent cards and telegrams.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sanders and daughters did a very fine job of organizing the affair, including the making and decorating of a three-tier cake.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our deep appreciation to the people of Irma and district for the expressions of sympathy extended during our sad bereavement and for the beautiful floral tributes received and donations made in memory of our dear wife and mother.
